SOCIAL and PERSONAL

To-day is Ash Wednesday, and the ultra fashionable set has concluded the social calendar for the winter, and will begin the Lenten season with attendance upon church services this morning. There will be no more big dancing parties and very little card playing or entertaining of any kind, except in a most informal way, until after Easter, and Miss Society will devote herself to charitable functions of all sorts and kinds for the next forty days.

Stalnaker—Moore.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Winchester, D. C., February 24.—The marriage of Miss Margaret Cabell Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Moore, Jr., of Berryville, Clarke County, to William Bevell Stalnaker, of Chatham, N. C., a son of the late Mr. Stalnaker, was celebrated at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. Stalnaker, at 6 o'clock this evening in Grace Protestant Episcopal Church at Berryville. The church was beautifully decorated with Easter lilies, white roses, tropical palms and ferns, the color scheme being white and green. The wedding march was played by the organist, Miss Jane C. Moore. Several solos were sung before the ceremony by Miss J. Stalnaker, Dawson, of Rockville, Md., and an organ recital was also given.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white tulle, trimmed with pink applique lace, and a brocade veil. Her veil, made of tulle, was fastened with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Annie Moore, a sister of the bride, wore a gown of gold-colored tulle, trimmed with white lace, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids, Misses Mary Stalnaker, of Winchester, N. C., and Misses Mary Stalnaker, of Winchester, N. C., were also present. A large reception was held immediately after the wedding at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. Stalnaker, a distinguished Virginia lawyer, and her mother-in-law is a member of the old and well-known Cabell family, of Nelson County. Mr. Stalnaker is an assistant treasurer of the United States and also owns several large estates in the Northwest. He and his bride will live at Chateau, Mont. Upon returning from their wedding trip.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding reception included Dr. and Mrs. Cabell Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kenna Campbell, of Washington; Mrs. Henry Fleming, of Baltimore; Miss Annie Stephenson, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brewer, of Rockville, Md.; Mr. William Waters, all of Rockville, Md., in addition to large numbers of family connections and friends from different parts of Clarke County, Winchester, Chatham and Shenandoah counties, and other portions of the Shenandoah Valley.

Adams—Chambers.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Kenbridge, Va., February 24.—A beautiful home wedding took place this morning at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. B. Chambers, of Kenbridge, Adams, formerly of Halifax County, but for two years past a resident of Kenbridge, and Miss Evelyn Chambers, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore O'Grady, were united in marriage. Owing to illness of a member of the bride's family, only the immediate family was present to witness the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. D. E. Stephens, pastor of the Methodist church here. The bride was escorted by her brother, Mr. Adams, and the couple were conveyed to Blackstone, where they will reside. They will be at home at Kenbridge, after March 15.

LOCKED IN REFRIGERATOR CAR.
Freight Ride Nearly Cost Life of Joseph Comiskey, of Richmond.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Philadelphia, Pa., February 24.—A freight ride in a refrigerator car nearly cost the life of Joseph Comiskey, eight-year-old son of a well-known family, discovered in a semiconscious condition at twenty-seventh and South Streets, after having been in the car since Saturday. He was taken to the Philadelphia Hospital and is expected to recover. When the youth was revived he told the police he had crawled into the car after a quarrel with his parents. He fell asleep, and the car was moving, and he found the car was sealed and the train was moving, but where he did not know. At first he did not mind the cold, but later he became numb and hungry. During the journey he ate parts of raw chickens to keep from starving.

The local police are unable to find any trace of Joseph Comiskey.

Mr. Murphy made the highest average in a class of eleven candidates from Norfolk and Portsmouth who took the examination.

WANT CRATER FARM AS WAR MEMORIAL

Swanson and Watson Introduce Joint Resolution as to Feasibility.

MAKES $1,000 APPROPRIATION

Several Federal Monuments Already Erected There by Northern States.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, D. C., February 24.—Senator Claude A. Swanson and Congressman Walter A. Watson, of Virginia, introduced a joint resolution in Congress to-day to authorize and direct the Secretary of War to appoint a commission of three, to examine, survey and report upon the feasibility of acquiring the Crater farm, in Petersburg, as a suitable memorial of the War Between the States, and to preserve the same as a park for the erection of monuments. The resolution provides an appropriation of $1,000 to defray the expenses of the commission. The main object is to acquire the Crater farm, and some adjoining property, which it is believed can be bought for approximately $20,000.

"The Crater farm, which was the scene of one of the most remarkable conflicts during the war," said Congressman Watson in explaining the resolution, "consists of about ninety acres, about a quarter of a mile east of the corporate limits of Petersburg, and immediately on the line of the Confederate fortifications of the city. The Crater itself remains in its original state, and is a large semi-circular excavation, to which is attached the remains of the tunnel during the war."

"On July 31, 1864, it was the scene of the most unique event in the history of the war. Over 100,000 pounds of gunpowder was exploded underneath a strategic point in the fortifications, resulting in several hundred troops within the battery being blown to atoms. Fifty thousand men were massed by General Grant to penetrate the breach, and a very spectacular and heroic content raged almost all day for the possession of the position. The Confederate line was finally restored, and several hundred Confederate soldiers and several hundred Federal soldiers were killed. The battle was a tactical draw, but it was a tactical draw, and it is stated many others will be placed there, as a number of G. A. R. members have passed resolutions recommending that such memorials be placed at that point, about which more troops were assembled than at any other place during the war."

Rate Increase Suspended.
Washington, D. C., February 24.—An increase of 2 cents a hundred pounds in the freight rate on cement from Indiana points to Memphis, Tenn., New Orleans, La., and other destinations in the South proposed by the Southern and Southwestern railroads to-day was suspended by the Interstate Commerce Commission until June 26. An inquiry into the advance already has been instituted.

GIRL BADLY BURNED.
Pours Oil Into Stove and Can of Kerosene Explodes.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Winchester, Va., February 24.—Laying down a local paper before finishing reading accounts of so many people being killed by kerosene, Elizabeth Carter, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Carter, complained this evening of feeling dizzy and of oil in the stove. The can exploded, scattering oil, and the girl was badly burned.

Sustains Serious Burn.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Henderson, N. C., February 24.—To-day about 1 o'clock H. J. Hartmeyer, who is engaged in the meat business, was standing near the stove, his clothing caught on fire and was soon in a blaze, resulting in his being painfully burned.

BAD DIZZY SPELLS CURED BY BLACK-DRAUGHT

An Old Man, Nearing the Century Mark, Tells How His Wife and Self Conquered Their Trouble

Fontella, Va.—Mr. W. H. Ogden, of this town, says: "I am in my eighty-third year, and sometimes have had dizzy spells, but a dose of Thedford's Black-Draught will relieve me in twenty minutes."

My wife suffered with cramp colic, sick headache and catarrh. She took Black-Draught, which cured her of all three troubles. She also suffered terribly for years with neuralgia in her side, and could get nothing to do her any good until she tried Thedford's Black-Draught, which has relieved her almost entirely.

We can also recommend Black-Draught for kidney trouble. In fact,

TWO HUNDRED GUESTS ATTEND.
Fayetteville Chamber of Commerce Gives Annual Banquet.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fayetteville, N. C., February 24.—As a part of its campaign to promote further industrial co-operation, particularly between the town and country, the Fayetteville Chamber of Commerce gave a banquet here to-night, at which 200 men were present. Several invited speakers from other industries made addresses on subjects vitally connected with the upbuilding of this section. Major H. W. Stick, United States Army, of Wilmington, engineer in charge of this district talked on "The Canalization of the Cape Fear River and Its Benefits." "The Chamber of Commerce as a Community Builder" was the subject of Colonel Fred A. Olds, former secretary of the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce. B. E. Rice, land and industrial agent of Norfolk Southern Railroad had some very practical things to say about co-operation in the upbuilding of the agricultural and industrial interests of North Carolina. The wonderful agricultural progress in North Carolina during the last years was discussed by Blon H. Butler, of Hatteras, agricultural writer and editor of the "Hatteras Journal." Hubert Ramsaur, secretary of the North Carolina Chamber of Commerce, spoke of the subject "Manufacturing and Railroad."
